

BUNDOK SOCIETY OF MAKATI, PHILIPPINES
REPORT ON THE JUNE 28, 2008 HOMECOMING REUNION

This is my report on our 2008 Homecoming Reunion held June 28 in Makati, Philippines. We had two sets of activities: a daytime reunion and an evening Jam Session.

The following attended our daytime reunion activities:

Those that travelled from the US: Alfredo Antonio, Art and Esmyrna Jorge, Mely and Salvador Mallorca, Norma Vecta Manjoorsa, Lorna Camacho Pacis, and Norma Quintos Willis.

Attendees from the Makati area and their guests: M. Cabangonon (teacher), Angelita Sagun Dalunao (teacher), Cristina N. Gumatay (teacher), Ma. Teresa Ibay, Yolanda Kagiwat (teacher), Estelita Macasieb, Nelia Mangubat, Crystalyn Nargit (teacher), and Cecilia Samia (assistant principal and contact person at the school for the reunion; email address = lcj_2668@yahoo.com, cell phone # = 0927-523-4404).

All those that travelled from the US attended our evening Jam Session which saw the participation of the following local folk: Celia Vicencio Agustin, Daniel Agustin, Nenette Agustin, Joy (an associate of Fred Antonio) and a friend, C. Baliola and her husband, Cristina Decena, Geri Decena, Clarita Figueroa, Joey Figueroa, Liza Laboriante, Estelita Macasieb, Belinda Mallorca, Ernesto Mallorca, Nelia Mangubat, Lourdes Palma, Amado Vicencio, and Lina Vicencio.

It was agreed that we would purchase and donate a TV set to the MES AVR since what they had at the time we were there was not working. So, on July 8, I went to Anson Emporium and purchased a 21" TV, a DVD player, and an equipment rack for P11,480 (including delivery). Ms. Samia and the new principal were so delighted and thanked us (Class 1954) profusely. The principal requested that maybe Class 1954 could make small donations to some indigent students so that they could attend high school. I told Ms. Samia that I will take the matter up with the Society.

The following summarizes our contributions and expenses for the 2008 Homecoming Reunion:
